

Person specification for people to be considered by Momentum for endorsement in for the Greater London Authority selections.

Criteria
1. Experience as an elected representative, preferably in local government, and carrying out functions such as scrutinising budgets, chairing committees, and conducting audits.
2. Policy knowledge in key areas covered by the GLA's remit, such as transport, planning, police and crime, housing, economic development, and fire safety.
3. If applying for a constituency position, applicants should demonstrate a credible connection and knowledge of the seat concerned. Applicants for list positions should have an awareness of relevant issues across the city.
4. Ability and willingness to report back accurately to party members, and ensure their perspectives are well represented on the GLA.
5. Demonstrable commitment to the democratisation of the Labour Party, its transformation into a socialist, members-led party capable of harnessing the energy and talents of all its members, and the election of a left wing Labour government under the leadership of Jeremy Corbyn.
6. Ability to lead campaigns and make the case for progressive policies in London, including by communicating effectively on the media and online.
7. Demonstrable commitment to working and organising collectively, including by prioritising the objectives of the Labour left.

8. Strong interpersonal skills, including the ability to win people over with persuasion, manage conflict and build positive and robust working relationships with people at all levels of the Labour movement.

9. Ability to exercise a high level of discretion, diplomacy, and judgment in sensitive political situations.

10. Integrity and sensitivity to ethical and equalities issues and a strong commitment to equal opportunity in all matters.

11. As the GLA positions are full-time paid positions, applicants must commit to being able to dedicate the equivalent of a full-time job to serving on the GLA in the event of being elected.