I have served on the Regional Board since 2016. I have worked hard on the panels dealing with appeals from local government selections, endeavouring to make sure that able comrades are treated fairly when they aspire to represent the Party in local elections.

I have faithfully represented the views of CLPs when required, for example in the struggle in Newham to make sure that the Mayoral candidate was selected fairly.

I have vigorously supported the full implementation of Regional Conference policy, in particular the attempt to implement the decision to elect members of the Board by One Member One Vote.

I worked for Jeremy Corbyn in the two leadership elections and I have no doubt that in choosing Jeremy the party took a decisive step towards the election of a genuinely socialist government. Building Council houses, homelessness, the shortage of police officers and the rise violent crime are very big issues for us in London.

I think that we haven't fully addressed transport issues for disabled people.

In advance of the London elections it is imperative that we have a special conference to decide the details of our manifesto.

As Redbridge's Cabinet Member for Crime, Safety and Community Cohesion I have taken an active interest in combatting hate crime and the rise in far right extremism and re-invigorating our work on Violence Against Women and Girls.

I believe that all of our Councils should be doing more to accommodate refugees.

I am a member of the Cooperative Party, The National Education Union and the Greece Solidarity Campaign
