

Person specification for people to be considered by Momentum for the left slate for Regional Executive Committees.

Criteria
1. Demonstrable commitment to the democratisation of the Labour Party and its transformation into a socialist, members-led party capable of harnessing the energy and talents of all its members and winning elections.
2. Experience of representing members and defending and advancing their concerns within Labour movement structures.
3. Intermediate understanding of Labour Party structures, including the Rule Book, and in particular of the updated standing orders for Regional Executive Committees.
4. Demonstrable commitment to working and organising collectively, including by prioritising the objectives of the Labour left.
5. Experience of developing positive and robust working relationships with diverse Labour movement stakeholders, including trade unionists, party staffers, and other elected representatives.
6. Ability to analyse the regional political landscape and make strategic assessments about which issues to prioritise.
7. Strong interpersonal skills, including the ability to win people over with persuasion, manage conflict and build positive and robust working relationships with people at all levels of the Labour movement.
8. Ability to exercise a high level of discretion, diplomacy, and judgment in sensitive political situations.
9. Integrity and sensitivity to ethical and equalities issues and a strong commitment to equal opportunity in all matters.

10. Ability and willingness to read papers in advance, and raise relevant issues with other supportive representatives in advance of meetings.

11. Ability and willingness to attend all regional Conference meetings, relevant subcommittee meetings, and panels.

12. Ability and willingness to report back accurately to party members, and take up their concerns and cases with the regional board.
